CLASSIS IS STILL IN SESSION.

Profitable Sermons Delivered and Business Given Attention.

The annual business meeting of the Heidelberg Classis of the Reformed church held its second business session yesterday afternoon and program last evening in the auditorium of the church.

Rev. I. Rothenberger of Galion gave the first address of the evening. His subject was, "Home Missions". The speaker treated his subject in both an interesting and profitable manner and was highly appreciated by his audience.

Rev. J. C. Hillman, of Crestline was the second number on the program and made a highly interesting talk on the Mission college of Franklin Wisconsin.

Today, the third routine business session was held by the ministers. Tonight the third program will be given.

If you're sick and depressed, and all "out of sorts," there's nothing that will so quickly set you right at Hollister's Rock Mountain Tea. One package makes over one hundred cups of tea. At drug stores, 35 cents.
